Relapse By Ike Denied

Hagerty Says President Did Not Suffer Upset During Campaign Swing

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty categorically denied today that President Eisenhower suffered a "mild relapse" on his campaign swing last week.

Hagerty said a newspaper had advised him that columnist Drew Pearson would publish such a report Saturday.

"It is the most amazing document of falsehood I have ever seen," Hagerty said.

He said that with the exception of a bloodshot eye caused by two small pieces of confetti lodging in it in Portland, Ore., Mr. Eisenhower "felt fine" on the campaign trip. Hagerty said Mr. Eisenhower naturally felt tired after some of the long days of campaigning.

However, Hagerty added, this was a "perfectly natural tiredness and had nothing to do with his health."

Pearson En Route West
He also denied categorically that Mr. Eisenhower had a "gastric upset" as a reporter said had been rumored among newsmen covering Democratic presidential candidate Adlai E. Stevenson.

Pearson was on a plane, en route to Minneapolis, and could not be reached immediately for comment.

Pearson's office made the column available to the press in general after it was criticized by Hagerty. An excerpt follows:

"It will be vigorously denied but President Eisenhower apparently suffered a mild relapse on his western campaign trip. Whether it was campaign exhaustion or something more serious it hit Ike while he was driving back to the airport from Minneapolis.

"He suddenly turned to others in the car and announced that 'I can't take any more of this. Let's get out of here.' The presidential limousine took off from the motorcade and sped to the airport followed by a Secret Service car."

Says Pearson Wasn't There
Hagerty made detailed denials of what he called 10 misstatements of fact in the column. He said he had called Pearson's office immediately before making the denial but was told the columnist was somewhere on his way to the Midwest.

BELMONT, Mass. (AP) — Charles W. Thiery celebrated his 106th birthday today by toasting the girl he never found.

"A good thing I didn't or I might have been dead years ago," he said.

Thiery is convinced that his bachelor life, along with his refusal to smoke or drink, has made him a happy centenarian. But mostly not having any truck with dames.

"Marriage is all right if you find the right woman," he said, "but how are you going to know until after the wedding?"

Jordan Denies King is Slain

LONDON (AP) — The Jordanian embassy today officially denied reports that King Hussein of Jordan had been assassinated.

A spokesman for the embassy said at 1:30 p. m. (7:30 a. m. CST) that the Jordanian ambassador had "just spoken to the royal palace in Amman which denied the report completely."

Baghdad Talhouni, chief of the royal cabinet in Amman, told Ambassador Beha-Uddine Tokan that "The King is in the best of health and everything is normal in Amman."

An assistant spokesman at the French Foreign Office in Paris had told newsmen flatly at midday that Hussein had been assassinated, giving neither qualifications nor details.

Pierre Baraduc, chief of the French Foreign Office press department, later watered down his assistant's version by saying the report was unconfirmed. He declined to say where it originated.

Police, Troops Fire on Mobs In Singapore

Fear Action Might Mark Communist Effort to Take Over

SINGAPORE (AP) — Singapore police, reinforced by British troops, fired today on mobs of Chinese students and secret society gangsters roaming the streets bent on destruction.

Europeans were stoned and their cars burned. Authorities feared the mob action might mark the start of a Communist effort to take over this British outpost.

An official casualty report listed 4 persons killed and 29 persons wounded. All were Chinese. Unofficial reports said many more than 29 were injured.

A government spokesman said the rioters attacked ambulances and fire engines. He estimated the number of troublemakers at up to 3,000, and said police were forced to open fire many times.

The government clamped a curfew on Singapore, effective from mid-afternoon today until further notice. Business was at a virtual standstill.

Six Europeans were reported stoned or burned when rioters attacked their cars on the road leading to the Singapore Airport. A mail truck and a number of automobiles were set afire in the city. At least one gasoline station also went up in flames.

Today's mob violence flared when police used teargas bombs to force Communist-led students from two schools where they had staged a 14-day sitdown strike in protest against government anti-Communist moves.

Police served a 10 minute ultimatum. When the students defied it police fired a half dozen teargas bombs. Some 1,000 students boiled out of the building and fled.

Trouble started Thursday when the government ordered the parents to take their children home. About 100 parents were present today and were hit by the teargas.

Mobs brawled with police and British servicemen and at least eight Britons were taken to hospitals after being beaten in the streets. Ten other persons were reported hurt.

FBI Agent Posing As Taxi Driver Seizes Convict

CINCINNATI (AP) — An FBI agent, posing as a taxicab driver, drove an "extremely dangerous" escaped Texas convict as his fare Thursday night until he sighted two other G-men on a busy street corner to help him make the arrest.

Ed Mason, the FBI agent in disguise, stalled his taxi on the pretense of not having change for the fare.

The fugitive, Robert B. Miracle, 26, was captured and arrested when Mason threw a headlock on him and the other two agents stripped him of a .32 caliber revolver and ammunition belt.

"I'm a pretty good shot," Miracle said on his way to jail. "If I could have got to that gun you wouldn't have had a chance."

The fugitive also told his captors that he would escape again, as he had from the state penitentiary at Ramsey, Tex., July 30.

He had served 13 months of a 20-year to life sentence for robbery.

Miracle is also wanted by authorities at McConnellsville, Ohio, and at Houston, Tex. The FBI arrested him for "unlawful flight."

The FBI said Miracle arrived in town Thursday and stole an automobile. Why he needed a taxi or how Mason lured him into his cab, the FBI would not say.

Miracle was positively identified by tattoos on his arm. One read: "Coletta and Robby" while the other was "Mom and Dad."

MOUND CITY, Ill. (AP) — A woman accused of kidnaping her own son has been released on $1,000 bond, pending a hearing.

Released with the 17-year-old mother, Mrs. Barbara Calvin, was Albert E. Vessels, 23, St. Louis. His bond was set at $2,000.

Magistrate Joe Jump set a hearing on the abduction charges for Nov. 13.

To Celebrate 50th Anniversary of First Christian Church Sunday

Members of the First Christian church on South Webster street will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the church Sunday, Oct. 28.

The anniversary program will be given at 2 p. m. the main feature of which will be an address by the Rev. Roy Blackmore of Flora. Other entertainment will be a 30-minute concert by the Pathfinder quartet, a number by the Christian Women's octet, a solo by James Overby and a church history to commemorate the work of the past.

Invitations have been sent to all former members of the church. The congregation and guests will fellowship together at noon with a basket dinner.

Church History

The following is a history of the church as compiled by a member:

All those who assemble in the First Christian church at 20 South Webster street on Oct. 28 to celebrate the 50th anniversary will see a beautiful little sanctuary.

But those who are sensitive to spiritual values will discern much more—an atmosphere created by shapes and shadows of other days.

In the words of Paul "they will be encompassed by so great a cloud of witnesses."

No longer will they see merely a structure of brick and stone, steel arches and lifeless timber, but there will rise that church not made with hands that has been 50 years in the building. The supporting arches will become the staunch souls who first caught the vision and those under whose leadership it has stood.

Each brick is a common laborer who day by day has done his bit. This church becomes a symbol of all consecrated churches.

Group of Twelve
The congregation on dedication day can meditate on those beginnings in 1906. A Mr. Dickerson of Lawrenceville, father of the wife of Dr. Stephens promised the Illinois Missionary board $50 when it established a Christian church in Harrisburg. Gus Poole wrote the letter that brought an able evangelist, E. M. Norton, to this city.

The nucleus of twelve met in at his home here. One leg is in a cast and he wears a back brace.

To test the FIF's 20-millimeter cannon, Attridge went into a shallow dive from 13,000 feet at 890 miles per hour and fired two four-second bursts. Suddenly, in the midst of the dive, the canopy over the cockpit shattered.

At first the test pilot thought a bird had ripped into his bullet-proof canopy. But the Navy, upon examining the wreckage, found three shell holes and a cannon slug of the type Attridge was firing in the engine.

Attridge pointed his plane toward the Calverton air strip, but when his engine conked out, he was forced to crash land short of the field.

Pilot of Jet Plane Shot Down by Its Own Bullets Says It Could Happen Again

GLEN COVE, N. Y. (AP) — The pilot who flew his jet plane so fast it caught up with its own bullets and was shot down believes it could happen again any time.

Tom Attridge, 33, who was the victim of such a freak accident Sept. 21 while test-firing over the Atlantic Ocean off Long Island, N. Y., refuted the Navy's assertion it was a "million-to-one shot."

"At the speeds we're flying today," he said Thursday, "it could be duplicated any time."

Attridge, married and the father of three girls, spent two weeks in a hospital after crash-landing the Navy's F1F supersonic jet fighter in a wooded area a 1-2 mile short of an air strip near Calverton, N. Y. He is now recuperating

Soviets Impose Reign of Terror; Thousands Dead

Civilians, Hungarian Soldiers Hanged in Streets of Budapest

VIENNA (AP) — Hungarian workers struck today throughout the nation to back the growing strength of rebel forces who seized large areas of eastern and southern Hungary and set up a "revolutionary government."

Reports reaching the outside world told of a "reign of terror" imposed by the Soviets in their desperate efforts to restore order. Civilians and Hungarian soldiers were reported hanged in Budapest streets, crowds were reported mowed down by Russian machinegunners.

The dead was reported in the "thousands" in the fourth day of the revolution that has shaken the Communist dynasty and brought rumblings in other Communist satellites—East Germany and Albania.

Reports of the rebel government came from the government-controlled radio in the southern industrial city of Pecs. It said the insurgents had formed a "revolutionary council" in the surrounding area to direct the campaign against troops still loyal to the Hungarian regime.

Army Joins Rebels
There were growing reports of Hungarian army units fighting alongside the rebels, sometimes joined by Soviet deserters who balked at firing on men, women and children. The Hungarian secret police was reported forced to take over army units in some cases.

The revolt has spread far beyond the limits of the Hungarian capital and rebels seized the rich coal and uranium mines in eastern and southern Hungary. Even the official Communist Party newspaper Pravda conceded in Moscow today the fight continued.

Reports of the general strike, called to paralyze communication and industry in Hungary, came from Austrian railway workers who visited Hegyesalom, the first rail check point inside Hungary.

They said the first workers to lay down their tools were Hungarian railway workers and that employees of all factories and plants had joined them. By 10 a. m. they said, work had ceased throughout Hungary.

There were these other developments in the crisis:

In Berlin a Swiss traveler told the newspaper B.Z. "I saw people hang in rows along the Danube pier . . . people rounded up and shot on the spot or hanged . . . but where the rebels won they were ruthless against the Soviet troops. I have seen Red army soldiers hanged."

In Belgrade, the Budapest correspondent of Politika reported "thousands" of persons dead, hundreds killed and bodies piled high in three assaults on the Parliament buildings in Budapest.

In East Germany there were fears of the trouble that broke first in Poland and flared into open warfare in Hungary. A West Berlin intelligence organization said East Germany had alerted 250,000 troops and police in fear of a Hungarian-type revolt.

Arrested Following High Speed Chase

Otto Cline of Mt. Carmel was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff James Lyon on Route 45 between Harrisburg and Eldorado following a chase at high speeds and Cline was jailed, to be charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, Sheriff Will T. Barrett reported.

The local officers had received a police radio call from Carmi stating the car was headed south on Route 45 and Lyon tried to intercept the car at Wasson. However, Cline passed up Lyon and Lyon gave chase. He said that Cline's car sped up to 110 miles an hour during the chase, which ended near Middle Fork bridge.

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Elder Dulles' Do-Nothing
Policy Proves Wisest; Balloon
Barrage Blasts Satellite Silence; Khrushchev Ouster May Be Bad News For U. S.

WASHINGTON. — A good many days before the Polish revolt, Allen Dulles, head of Central Intelligence, the younger, smarter brother of the secretary of state, predicted that what did happen would happen. He also predicted serious straining at the leash against Moscow in other satellite countries.

Finally he urged the Eisenhower administration to do something to encourage the satellite breakaway. He found like leaders and state department strategists, however, much too preoccupied in the political campaign to do much serious iron curtain thinking.

In Washington, Allen Dulles, the much less publicized member of the Dulles family, is considered by far the brighter of the two brothers.
Though he operates under a careful cloak of secrecy so that his mistakes are not known to the public, he has made few mistakes (his backing of Col. Nasser was the worst), and has called the shots with remarkable accuracy.

In this case, however, it looks as if the elder Dulles brother's do-nothing policy re Poland was wiser than Allen's do-something policy.

Over CBS TV the other night, John Foster Dulles reported to the public that he was doing very little to encourage Polish revolutionists. Dulles said this almost apologetically as if fumbling to

In the course of this fumbling he said: "There are balloons." He referred to the freedom balloons which have been floated regularly and repeatedly across the border into Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary.

Despite Dulles' groping, every diplomatic observer who has followed the European scene closely figures that the best thing the United States can do right now is to keep quiet, officially, and let the strong ferment inside Poland work itself out. For this government to barge into the picture even with public statements might either drive restless Poles back toward Moscow, or give Moscow an excuse to barge into the picture.

The quick, resentful Polish reaction to Eisenhower's political statement in Denver congratulating the Poles showed the wisdom of the elder Dulles' do-nothing policy, even if he arrived at it by accident.

Balloons Across "CURTAIN"

Here is the background of the "balloons" to which Secretary Dulles referred in telling what he was doing to encourage Polish revolt.

The idea of floating propaganda balloons across the iron curtain was first proposed by this writer in 1948. It met with no enthusiasm whatsoever in the State Department, though welcomed by such men as Gen. Omar Bradley, then chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

After two years of plugging the idea, however, I was given the green light by Edward Barrett, then assistant secretary of state, now dean of the Columbia School of Journalism. He specified, however, that I get a non-American committee to sign the freedom-friendship leaflets to the satellite people.

In 1950, I visited Turkey, Yugoslavia, West Germany and various other countries along the iron curtain to organize a freedom balloon committee, but got little or no response. The Turks were scared to death of offending Russia. No important Turkish leader would become a member of a freedom balloon committee. The French and British were equally timid. In Yugoslavia I got the best response.

Finally, in 1951, with the support and cooperation of C. D.
Jackson, energetic and brilliant publisher of Fortune and head of the Crusade for Freedom. The first balloons were launched by Harold Stassen and me on a wet August night from the German border into Czechoslovakia.

The State Department at that time would not permit balloons to go into Poland for fear of arousing the Russians.

The first leaflets were signed by the CIO-AFL of Canada, the equivalent labor groups of Latin America, the Free Writers Association of Europe, and the General Federation of Women's Clubs, then headed by Mrs. Dorothy Houghton now co-chairman of Citizens for Eisenhower.

After that initial launching, techniques were improved so that balloons have gone to Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia regularly. In the past year, a small newspaper has crossed the iron curtain almost once a week, and a total of more than 200,000,000 pamphlets has been dropped over the satellites since that first balloon was launched from a misty wheat field in Bavaria in August 1951.

The State Department, meanwhile, has kept a hands-off policy —which is wise. Under Secretary Dulles, it has even been more than hands off. It has been negative. Last summer when the International Order of Eagles wanted to send Benson's surplus food to hungry satellite peoples, the State Department frowned and said no. There had been too many protests from Moscow.

KHRUSHCHEV OUT??

You can write it down as almost certain that bubbling, vodka-drinking Nikita Khrushchev, the secretary of the Communist party who tried to soften the tough policies of Joe Stalin, is on his way out.

A small clique inside the Kremlin has been gunning for him for some time. Now the Polish revolt gives them an excuse to oust him.
His ousting will probably be bad news for the United States, because Khrushchev, with all his faults, was a lot more tolerant toward the rest of the world than ruthless Joe Stalin. He gave the Russian people more freedom, had started to lift the iron curtain, and, according to reports from U.

S. Ambassador Bohlen, seemed to think that hydrogen war would spell the end of civilization.

The group that has disapproved of Khrushchev's policies is headed by dour, America-hating ex-Foreign Minister Molotov, who believes in the Stalin school that toughness pays. Now he can say:
"I told you so."

Molotov is too old to head up the Kremlin. The man who will probably fill Nikita's shoes is Anastas Mikoyan, who has played both the Molotov and the Khrushchev sides and can get along with both.

Note—Khrushchev has a son-in-law in Washington. He is first secretary of the Soviet embassy, whose job it was to negotiate with Pan American Airways for landing rights in Russia. He has seemed rather friendly to the United States. Khrushchev started American diplomats not long ago by hinting that he would like to have his son educated in the U. S. A.

Family Finances Need Close Watch

EAST LANSING, Mich. — (UP) — Homemakers should study their financing as carefully as if they were running the national budget.

A family of four buys approximately three tons of food each year, said Mrs. Edythe C. Peck, director of public relations at the Birmingham, Mich., National Bank.

And the mother of a family of four serves 1,195 meals annually, Mrs. Peck said, stressing the homemaker's responsibility in deciding what amount to spend for food.

Mrs. Peck suggested that families make a blueprint of their present and future obligations before embarking on a spending spree.

Families wanting to buy homes should have a down payment of at least 20 per cent, she said. And they should have something left for furnishings.

Other factors to consider are life insurance, savings programs and the cost of operating a house.

"When you are deciding whether or not to use credit," she said, "ask

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

"Wash your face and hands.
Please do a thorough job this time." How many times have we made such a statement to our children? How many times did we hear the request when we were young?

Children just seem to want to be dirty. They rebel at the idea of cleanliness. We talk sanitation.
We tell them about germs and diseases. We plead for a better appearance. We cajole for social acceptance. But to all our actions, demands and threats we receive rebuff.

In our discouragement we generalize that our younger generation is non-cooperative and basically disobedient. We think they do not care how they look.

Actually the young are following the line of least resistance. They are reacting to cleanliness of body much as many adults react to cleanliness of soul. We admit that our souls need to be cleansed of sins of omission and commission.

Both God and our fellowmen tell us about our poor spiritual habits but we follow the line of least resistance. We are not seriously evil. We are not moral perverts.
We just do not want to do a thorough job of living with the Almighty Father.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

I meditate on all thy works.
Psalm 143:5.

That is a task we shall never exhaust. The microscope and telescope have fabulously multiplied the wonder of God's works, but the material universe is only part of the work of the Infinite.

Gifts to Society

Among Arabian gifts to European medieval society were the art of fortification, knightly tournaments, the troubadour, and chivalry itself.

yourself: Is the item actually worth what it will cost? Can I repay the loan? How much risk is involved?
How much will I have to pay for the privilege of using credit?"

Harrisburg Home Bureau Announces Coming Events

The Harrisburg Home Bureau unit met with Mrs. Anna Williams, 115 West Locust, for its October affair. The chairman, Mrs. W. L. Tate, called the meeting to order after which the minutes were read by Mrs. George Lindsay in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Abney.

Nine members answered roll call by "telling the month I prefer to be hostess in 1957." Mrs. Tate announced a cooking school to be held in the Orpheum Theatre in Eldorado on Nov. 20 at 1 p. m. and tickets are 50c per person; also Nov. 15, at the city hall, Harrisburg, a lesson on Christmas decorations, and on Nov. 8, at 7 p. m., the unit will have a joint meeting with four other units at the city hall.

The major lesson was "Easy to care for Fabrics and Finishes" by Mrs. Louie Gaskins. The minor topic, "Discipline," was given by Anna Williams.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. I. Bair, served refreshments to the following: Mrs. A. I. Bair, Mrs. Archie Chapman, Mrs. Louie Gaskins, Mrs. George Lindsay, Mrs. J. W. Myers, Mrs. J. P. Mitchler, Mrs. W. L. Tate and Mrs. Anna Williams.

Galatia O. E. S. Past Matron's Halloween Party

The Past Matron's club of Galatia chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met Monday, Oct. 20 at the home of Mrs. Reginald Riegel, at 7 p. m. for their October meeting and Halloween party.

The Halloween season had a lot to do with the attire of each member who attended. There were flappers, grandmothers and some ready to retire at a moment's notice. The prize went to Mrs. Velma Griggs for staying masqueraded the longest.

Mrs. Ray Owens, club president, opened the meeting with song, and the scripture reading was from the 24th Psalm, read by Mrs. Bill Horn.

Recreation was conducted by Mrs. Wiley Ryan and Mrs. Nobel Williams.

Members were invited to the home of Mrs. Ryan for their Nov. 26th meeting.

Refreshments in keeping with Halloween were served to the following: Mrs. Ray Owens, Mrs. Leo Wathen, Mrs. Monnie Kimmel, Mrs. Bill Horn, Mrs. Wiley Ryan, Mrs. Velma Griggs, Mrs. Noble Williams, Mrs. Carl Ray, Mrs. Paul Holland and the hostess, Mrs. Riegel.

Mrs. Walter Gaskins, Pueblo, Colo., is here visiting her son, John R. Jackson and family, and other relatives and friends.

Golden Rule Class Party Held at North Willford

Halloween was the theme of the decorations and the entertainment when the Golden Rule Sunday school class of the North Willford Baptist church met Monday night in the basement of the church for a party. Mrs. Opal Duncan, teacher, entered heartily into the fun, and everyone had a grand time.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Maxine Belts; songs, and prayer followed. Delightful fellowship filled the social hour.

Present to enjoy the party were Mrs. Eva Bowles, Mrs. Barbara Borders, Miss LaMonn Jones, Mrs. Norma Jean Marvel and Sandy, Mrs. Clara Sisk, Mrs. Maxine LaMar, Mrs. Dorris Duffee, Mrs. Helen Hill and daughter, Debbie, Mrs. Naomi Jones, Mrs. Hazel Pease, Mrs. Maxine Belts, Mrs. Lavern Underwood and son, Mrs. Belva Ragsdale, and Mrs. Duncan.

Saline County College Women's Club Meets

The Saline County College Women's club met Thursday evening, Oct. 18, in the Little Theatre of the Junior high school. Miss Barbara Thompson, newly-elected president, called the meeting to order and ten members reported to roll call.

Minutes of previous meeting read by Miss Elsa M. Tyndall, secretary.

In discussing the possibility of a float for next year's Homecoming parade, Mrs. Mary Lindsay made some pertinent suggestions. The president named her committees for the year, the program committee being chairman, Mrs. Edith Arensman, co-chairman, Mrs. Martha Dixon, Mrs. C. E. Combe, and Mrs. Harry Flanders.

The program, arranged by Miss Thompson, consisted of a film titled "English Influences on early United States History," shown by Johnny Uter. This was very enjoyable, featuring pictures of famous New England towns, town meetings, churches, court houses, and residences of Georgian architecture.

The meeting closed with a social hour, delicious refreshments furnished by Miss Thompson and Mrs. Jerry Chunn; and a tour of inspection of the new assembly hall. The meeting for next month will be Nov. 15, with Mrs. Combe.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Streight have gone to Champaign-Urbana, to visit their son, William Ed Streight, and to attend the Homecoming game at the University of Illinois.

College Sophs Etch 'Rat' with Acid on Six Freshmen

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—A University of Georgia dean ordered a group of sophomore vigilantes to explain today why they used acid to etch the word "rat" on the foreheads of six freshmen who failed to wear their beanies.

Dean of Men Williams Tate said the sophomores, all members of an organization known as "Dif-tad," took the freshmen to a small shack at the edge of the campus a week ago to discipline them for failing to wear their "rat caps" or freshmen beanies.

He said the word "rat" was painted on the freshmen's foreheads with a match stick dipped in an acid solution which contained silver nitrate.

The freshmen at first were believed to have been permanently scarred by the hazing stunt. But university physician Dr. J. H. Robbins examined them and said there was an excellent chance that the scars would heal without a trace.

Confirm Navy Depth Charge Can Kill Subs Miles Away

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's official that the Navy has an atomic depth charge that can kill submarines miles away. Its name is Lulu.

Vice Adm. W. V. Davis Jr., deputy chief of naval operations for air, confirmed Lulu's existence Thursday in an extemporaneous talk before an aviation writers group.

His remarks were not cleared in advance by the Defense Department. They touched off a flurry of telephone calls between high defense and Navy officials.

Scout Troop Camps Overnight at Pounds Hollow

Scout troop No. 17, sponsored by the Carrier Mills Baptist church, enjoyed an overnight stay at Pounds Hollow Friday. Fourteen boys and their full packs started at 2:30 p. m. from Carrier Mills and after arrival at about 3:30 the boys set up tents, cooked supper and then attended a Scout Camp Fire ceremony. There they heard a speech from the Forest Ranger of Shawnee National Forest.

Saturday morning the boys took a 12-mile hike through the mountains and arrived at the lookout tower about 1:30 in the afternoon. None of the adults were any the worse for the hike.

Rev. Ernest Ammon accompanied the boys for the afternoon and evening and Assistant Scoutmaster Clyde Durfee stayed during the night and Scoutmaster Leslie Reeves joined them in the evening after his work. He also led the boys on their hike.

Several other troops from southern Illinois were in the camp and on the trip.

15 Witnesses Testify at Herrin Inquest

HERRIN, Ill. (AP) — Fifteen witnesses testified today at an inquest into last week's gas explosion which killed eight persons here, but proceedings were continued to allow a state fire marshal to complete his report.

Louis Scheffler, owner of the truck from which came the leaking gas which caused the explosion in a residential area, did not testify on the advice of a physician. He has been under a doctor's care since the explosion, and his attorney presented a certificate at the inquest saying the physician feared the danger of apoplexy was too great to allow him to testify.

Coroner Adolph Fluck, however, read a statement which Scheffler gave authorities after the blast. In it, Scheffler said he had owned the propane truck about 30 days; that there were about 1,000 gallons of gas in it at the time of the blast.

Scheffler also told authorities that he tried to tell all the persons he could find to leave the area when he was unable to stop the leak of gas.

Roy Richardson, assistant state fire marshal, is still investigating the explosion and has not completed his report. Fluck continued the inquest until next Monday or Tuesday to allow additional time. Richardson was said to be in Chicago working on a phase of his investigation.

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — An investigation by the state fire marshal's office into a propane gas explosion at Herrin is still in progress, Fire Marshal John J. Twomey reported today.

Twomey said an intensive investigation of the explosion last week which killed eight persons is being made in cooperation with local authorities at Herrin. "It has to be looked into from all angles" before a report can be made, he said.

"THERE IS NO MOMENT LIKE THE PRESENT"

Your future health can be good or bad, depending on what you are doing now to protect it. If, when illness strikes, you delay seeking the skilled advice of your physician, you expose yourself to complications that later in your life may torment you.

Nature sends you pain or discomfort to warn you that something is wrong. Self treatment drugs that temporarily relieve that pain or discomfort, may hide a trouble that can become serious. Be wise. At the first sign of illness get your physician's advice and let him treat the real cause of your trouble.

Homecoming Prank May Result in Loss of Eye by Boy

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP) — A homecoming day prank which may result in the loss of an eye for a 17-year old Jacksonville High School student dampened festivities today for the school's big event.

Gerald Sorrels was splashed by whitewash Wednesday night when he and a number of other students were spreading whitewash on almost everything in sight, including themselves.

Doctors said Sorrels' right eye was badly burned by calcium hydroxide in the whitewash, and may have to be removed.

Jacksonville meets Lamphier High School of Springfield for the homecoming game tonight, but Principal John Agger canceled a homecoming parade, snake dance and bonfire.

Ike, Security Council Confer On Revolts

By United Press
President Eisenhower confers today with the National Security Council, the nation's top defense planning agency, to discuss intelligence reports on the Soviet uprisings in Poland and Hungary.

In a statement issued Thursday during his brief political foray into New York, Mr. Eisenhower denounced the use of Soviet force to crush the Hungarian revolt.

He said this action proves that the Soviet army had remained in Hungary to continue an occupation, not to protect that nation from aggression as the Kremlin has insisted.

Adlai E. Stevenson speaks in his home state of Illinois today in one of his final bids for Democratic support in the farm belt.

He pledged Thursday night in Springfield, Ill., to ask Sen. Estes Kefauver to head a "task force" to draw up a Democratic farm program for "quick" action by Congress if he is elected president.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon flew to the Pacific Northwest today to aid GOP drives to defeat Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) and Sen. Warren Magnuson (D-Wash).

Control of the Senate could depend on the success or failure of former Interior Secretary Douglas McKay and Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington to unseat their opponents.

Before taking off from Chicago, Nixon issued a statement Thursday night saying that the President is going to roll up a victory on Nov. 6 "that will surprise the experts."

East German Reds Alert 250,000 Troops Against Revolt

BERLIN (AP) — A West Berlin intelligence organization said today East German Communists have alerted 250,000 troops and police in fear of a Hungarian-type revolt. The anti-Communist "Fighting Group Against Inhumanity" said the Reds have alerted their 100,000 man people's army and border police as well as security and territorial police.

At the same time, the Communists organized special classes to teach their militia how to put down revolts.

Return from Medical Meeting in Ohio

Dr. and Mrs. Frank P. Skaggs and Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson have returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where they attended a meeting of the Interstate Post Graduate association of North America, which began Oct. 22 and ran thru the 25th. While the doctors attended numerous half hour clinics led by some of the most eminent physicians in the United States, the ladies attended an auxiliary meeting, attended some style shows and took some short sight seeing tours.

More than 2,000 doctors attended the Cleveland meeting, coming from all parts of the United States and a few from South America.

100 Clerks Idled By Strike at West Frankfort

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (AP) — A strike over wages has idled about 100 retail clerks here, a union spokesman said today. About 80 others were working under temporary contracts.

James McEwing, secretary-treasurer of Retail Clerks Local Union No. 488, said the union picketed eight stores Thursday and that six more locked their doors this morning.

He said the union asked increases of 12 cents an hour for the two lower wage brackets and 10 cents for the upper two brackets and employees making above the scale.

McEwing said the merchants proposed a two-year contract offering 5 and 4 cents the first year and 6 and 5 cents the second year. The higher figures would be for stores which have night openings.

Wreck on Bridge Ties Up Traffic

EAST ST. LOUIS (AP) — A wreck on the MacArthur Bridge tied up traffic between East St. Louis and St. Louis Thursday.

Cars were piled up for about 40 minutes after a car hit a guard rail, overturned and skidded into a coal truck.

Both drivers, Harry Hilsabeck, 30, and Stephan Arvay, 39, were booked for reckless driving. Both are from St. Louis.

President Hails World A-Agency

Pledges Nuclear Material in Message to Group

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — President Eisenhower today hailed the establishment of the International Atomic Energy Agency. He pledged 11,000 pounds of nuclear material to it immediately and offered to match donations of fissionable material from other countries.

The President's message was delivered to the closing session of the 82-nation conference on the first global "Atoms for Peace" program by Adm. Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the United States Atomic Energy Commission.

Mr. Eisenhower said he wanted the United States to be "among the first to recognize by official action what you at this conference have accomplished." Therefore, he said, he would follow a three-point program:

1. When Congress reassembles he will present for ratification by the Senate the governing statute for the new agency and request congressional authority to transfer nuclear materials to it.

2. When the atomic agency is set up "by appropriate governmental actions" the United States will make available 5,000 kilograms (11,020 pounds) of uranium-235 from the 20,000 kilograms (44,080 pounds) made available by the government last February for peaceful uses in friendly nations.

3. The United States will continue to make available to the agency nuclear material that will "match in amount the sum of all quantities of such materials made similarly available by all other members of the international agency, and on comparable terms, for the period between the establishment of the agency and July 1, 1960."

The International Atomic Energy Agency will have no control over atomic energy for military purposes and the President did not mention atomic or hydrogen bombs directly. But he said:

"Some day, we fervently hope, sanity will overcome man's propensity to destroy himself. Then the world can beat its swords into plowshares. All nations can turn their plants that make nuclear fuel to an exclusively civilian use, and the fuel in their stockpiled nuclear weapons can also be put to work for man's health and welfare."

"In that happy time the giant of atomic energy can become, not a frightening image of destructive war, but an obedient servant in a prosperous and peaceful world."

At its closing session, the conference opened for signature the agency's governing statute unanimously approved by 82 countries last Tuesday.

B47 Explodes in Takeoff; Four Dead

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — The Air Force examined charred pieces of a B47 Stratojet bomber today to try to learn what caused the plane to explode on takeoff, killing its crew of four.

The six-engine aircraft exploded into flames just off the end of a runway here Thursday after apparently trying to halt its takeoff run. The wreckage of the plane was scattered more than 1,000 yards.

Four officers aboard the bomber were killed instantly. They were identified as Capt. Daniel A. Hawk, 34, Pasadena, Calif., aircraft commander; Capt. Polish Leader Postpones Trip to Moscow

WARSAW (AP) — Polish Communist Party leader Wladyslaw Gomułka postponed his scheduled departure for Moscow today pending the complete withdrawal of all Soviet forces in Poland from combat-ready positions to their bases, informed sources reported.

Gomułka was scheduled to lead a delegation of the party Politburo to the Kremlin for talks aimed at smoothing the path of Soviet-Polish relations. The meeting would be the first between Gomułka and Soviet leaders since the former regained power last Friday.

Informed sources said Gomułka told the Russians he will not leave Warsaw until the last of the Soviet troops returned to their barracks.

Area High School Press Official Visits at HTHS

Dr. Donald Grubb, director of the Southern Illinois High School Press association, visited the Harrisburg Township high school Tuesday, to discuss the problems of high school newspapers and publications. Dr. Grubb described the association's program to the staff and the sponsor of the Purple Clarion, the school paper.

Plans are being made for a one and one half day conference for high school journalists later in the school year. Dr. Grubb especially invited Harrisburg students, saying, "HTHS participation makes for a successful conference." Dr. Grubb stated that outstanding stories and pictures sent to him would appear in the S.I.H.S.P.A. paper, "The High School Editor."

Another plan of the association is to start a central library of southern Illinois high school publications, both newspapers and yearbooks.

He also said that high school journalists could apply for scholarships at S. I. U. Mona Wickham, a past editor of the Clarion, was awarded one of these scholarships in 1955.

The Purple Clarion is a member of the S.I.H.S.P.A.

Seek Dismissal of Fare Boost Sought by IC

CHICAGO (AP)—A motion seeking dismissal of a three-million dollar fare boost sought by the Illinois Central Railway has been filed by the Cook County state's attorney's office.

The motion was sent Thursday to the Illinois Commerce Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission. It charged the railroad has "completely failed to sustain" its right to any increase in fares.

Eldorado May Lose Carmi on Football Schedule

Eldorado may lose one of its best football attractions next season, Coach Al Adams has revealed. Carmi, overshadowed only by Harrisburg as an attraction on the Eldorado schedule, has accepted an invitation to join the North Egyptian conference and will participate in the conference football schedule for the first time in 1957. Adams has received a letter from Carmi Coach John McDougal stating the conference schedule has been released and Carmi will play a loop opponent on the date usually reserved for Eldorado.

The letter stated Carmi had no desire to drop Eldorado from the schedule as the game was a popular one. The letter also revealed the only open date on the Carmi schedule was Sept. 27, and that is the date of the Harrisburg-at-Eldorado game.

Dropping Harrisburg from the Eldorado schedule is just out of the question.

So it looks as though Eldorado and Carmi will not meet in 1957 football. But both schools are anxious to keep the series going, and probably will work out something for 1958.

Yama Bahama is Favored Over Tex Gonzalez Tonight

NEW YORK — Yama Bahama, a former fishing guide from the island of Bimi, is favored to "hook" Tony (Tex) Gonzalez of East Orange, N. J., in their 10-round middleweight bout tonight at Madison Square Garden.

The fight, which will mark Gonzalez' first Garden appearance, will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 8 p. m. CST.

Bahama, whose real name is William Butler, suffered a questionable defeat at the hands of Pat Lowry in his last fight on Aug. 9 after running up a 23-bout winning streak. Yama was first announced the winner at Lansing, Mich., but one judge later changed his card in favor of Lowry and the decision was reversed.

The Yama Bahama-Gonzalez bout will be telecast over WSIL tonight at 8 o'clock.

SIU to Receive Two Pure Bred Saluki Mascots

CARBONDALE, Ill.—Two pure-bred Salukis, one of the rarest breeds of dogs, will be presented to Southern Illinois University during half-time ceremonies of the Southern-Western Illinois homecoming football game Saturday.

The dogs are a gift of W. W. Vandever, president of Ashland Oil Co., who will make the presentation to SIU President D. W. Morris.

The Saluki, an ancient Egyptian hunting dog, is the school symbol of SIU which is located in the southern Illinois area known as "Little Egypt." Salukis are pictured on school emblems, pennants, and decals. A Student programs and publications also carry out the Egyptian motif.

One of the two mascots given by Vandever, an alumnus and twice president of the Alumni Association, is a direct descendant of a champion from the kennels of King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia. He is an 18-month-old male named Ornah Farouk of Pine Paddocks. The other Saluki is a 10-month-old female, Burydown Datis, who was whelped in England. Vandever obtained the dogs from the Pine Paddocks Kennels near his Rocky River, O., home as a gift to students and alumni.

The Saluki, oldest pure breed in the world, has been identified in records dating back to 3600 B. C. There are only a few hundred of them in this country, according to the exclusive Saluki Club of America.

Salukis are similar in appearance to the greyhound and are capable of speeds up to 40 miles an hour. In ancient Egypt they were trained to hunt gazelles.

The new SIU mascots will be housed in kennels owned by Dr. Robert Scott, a chemistry professor at Southern. King Tut, the original Saluki mascot of the University, was killed by an automobile two years ago.

Six-Man Eldorado Team Will Enter Dis't Cross Country Meet

Eldorado will enter a six-man team in the district cross country meet to be held Saturday at Herin, but it lacks experience.

Heading the group is Leonard Willis, member of last year's district champion team and the gold medal winner in the district mile run. But he has been busy playing an end position on the football team this fall and it isn't known what he may do in cross country.

And the other five runners have been selected from physical education classes. "The boys wanted to run and I entered them," Adams stated. The group includes David Etienne, Fred Robinson, Delbert Tosh, Ronnie Watson and Foster.

The cross country meet will be held over a 1.9 mile course at Herin and starts at 10 a. m.

Eagles Face Cairo Friday

Game Will Be Stern Test for Unbeaten Eldorado

The Eldorado Eagles, unbeaten in six starts this season, face a strong Cairo team this evening in what may be Eldorado's sternest test to date.

Cairo, with a much heavier record than the Eagles, have a record of 5 victories and a lone defeat. Cairo's only loss of the season was administered last Friday night by the Benton Rangers, 26-20.

Eldorado Coach Al Adams expects to have his full roster of players available for starting duty Friday, but wonders how long some of the regulars will be able to continue play.

In last Friday's squeaker against West Frankfort Eldorado was without the services of its scoring unit practically all the time. Les Feuguay, Don Gwaltney and Jerry Rains came up with injuries that slowed them. Marty Feuguay had to play it as close as possible as he was in action for the first time in weeks following a broken collar bone and Gary Phelps was still hobbling on a bad leg. All these are backs. Although they saw some action, it was limited.

"We had to play defensive ball all night," Adams declared. Then added, "when we got the ball we were punched and couldn't keep possession for very long at a time."

Final Home Tilt
All the above mentioned players, plus Jack Mitchell, lineman with a leg infection last week, have showed signs of recovery.

And to keep the unbeaten record intact Eldorado will have to be at top strength.

Cairo features a big line, including a 205 pound tackle in Bill Greer. Eldorado's heaviest starting lineman is Richard Overton, 164 pound tackle.

Heading up Cairo's backfield is "Butch" Kaha, 200 pound fullback and fast enough to run on the track team.

Cairo's victories have been over Shawnee 20-0, Cape Girardeau Central 36-6, Sikeston 28-7, Charleston 33-12, Metropolis 33-12 and a loss, 26-20 to Benton.

Tonight's game will be the final home appearance for Eldorado. Friday, Nov. 2, the Eagles play at Benton and Friday, Nov. 9, travel to Metropolis for the season's last game.

"B" TEAM WINS FIRST GAME OF SEASON

The Eldorado "B" team won its first game of the season Monday, taking a 50-0 decision from Carmi. Eldorado got off to a fast start, scoring four TDs in the opening quarter.

Lopez Expected to Be Named White Sox Manager; Marion To Receive Salary for '57

CHICAGO — Marty Marion began a "one year vacation," expenses paid, today while the Chicago White Sox embarked on a search for a new manager, expected to end shortly with appointment of Al Lopez.

Marion quit the job Thursday, but he gave the White Sox an opportunity to give him a vote of confidence or fire him.

"I offered them my resignation with the provision that they pay me for 1957," Marion said, "and they accepted."

His contract extended through the 1957 season, and he said he had no plans for the future, except that he would like to stay in baseball. And he intimated that he would get that chance sometime.

Will Enjoy Vacation
"I want to stay in baseball," he said, "but I'm not going to coach and I'm not going to the minor leagues. I've got a couple of good businesses going and I like St. Louis. I'm just going to sit there, and enjoy my vacation."

Marion said he understood the White Sox would have to pay him his full salary, an undisclosed amount, for 1957 regardless of whether he accepts another baseball job or not.

Lopez, who recently resigned as manager of the Cleveland Indians, was mentioned as the new manager in Marion's presence and Marion made only one comment.

"If it's Lopez," he said, "tell him to bring his pitchers with him. And if it's Casey Stengel (manager of the New York Yankees), tell him to bring Mickey Mantle."

Job Called "Creditable"
Marion's disgust with the Sox front office began in the last week of the baseball season when Vice President Charles D. Comiskey said that his manager had done a "creditable" job.

"They were not happy with my work," Marion said. "We all felt that we might have won the pennant and we didn't do it. So I re-

Archie Moore, Floyd Patterson To Fight Nov. 30

CHICAGO — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and Floyd Patterson each will receive about $150,000 for their fight Nov. 30 for the world heavyweight championship, President James D. Norris of the International Boxing Club estimated today.

Moore, 43, and Patterson, 21, Thursday signed formal contracts for the bout, providing that each fighter get 30 per cent of the net gate plus television receipts.

Norris revealed that the payment to display the fight on television with Chicago, Milwaukee, and South Bend, Ind., blacked out would be $200,000.

"The house is scaled for $471,000 with tickets priced from $5 to $30 and we feel it's a very attractive match," Norris said. "Adding the television, we think we will pay off on about a half million dollars net to the fighters."

Norris suggested that a sellout crowd would set a new indoor fight record for both gate and attendance. The present money record is $422,919 for the Rocky Graziano-Tony Zale fight July 16, 1947 in the Chicago Stadium and the crowd record 20,008 for the Graziano - Ray Robinson bout in the same building April 16, 1952.

Norris said the contract for the fight did not contain a clause calling for a return match.

Globe Trotters to Play at Evansville

Evansville's Municipal stadium, said to be the largest structure of its kind in the tri-state area, will open Sunday night with the Harlem Globe Trotters the attraction. The Trotters and the Washington Generals will play basketball and there will be seven vaudeville acts. The show starts at 8 p. m.

A traffic plan for reaching the stadium has been announced and fans from southern Illinois are advised to take Franklin street all the way. Franklin terminates at the stadium.

The show Sunday is sponsored by the Evansville Press Youth Fund, a charity set up for underprivileged children. Tickets are priced at $2.50, $2 and $1.50.

To Celebrate Anniversary First Christian Church

and Mrs. Greeley, Irene Russell and Judge J. L. Thompson. Mrs. Mike Sewell and Irene Russell are the only living members of that group.

Later in the same year James Sharratt of Kansas City, Mo., held another revival and ordained officers. This revival was held in the old opera house over the present site of Schierle's cafe.

Soon the newly organized church bought the old Cumberland Presbyterian building and moved it to the corner of McKinley and Olive (now Raymond) streets. After another revival by Mr. Norton the church of 35 members was dedicated by Fred Jones, then field secretary of Illinois Disciples.

Addition Built

Since there was no baptistry, an addition was made to the little rectangular church. This furnished a Sunday school room and a work room for the Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Sewell, in reminiscing of the early days, said "I have often broken the ice on the floor of this work room to build a fire in the range to cook dinner for the public." The dignity of this whole addition is suggested by the nickname given it by the neighbors on Olive street—the "cow shed."

Of the present membership of the church, none but Irene Russell, came in earlier than 1913. Under the ministry of M. M. Mitchell in that year, in the order named, there were enrolled Annie Stewart, William Sloan Jr., Lula Williams, Ruth Stunson, Lena Goben and Ida Goben. William Sloan Jr. has the longest continuous record—38 years last February.

Purchased Lot

Ten pastors served the church at Olive and McKinley, during the 16 years. Only one served more than a year, Mr. C. W. Freeman. In his three years' work 85 were added to the church. Forty four came during the revivals of F. M. Sword. The shortness of the pastorates may be explained by a closing comment of Mr. Freeman, "Work in Harrisburg has been hard," and all that cloud of witnesses from that first period would echo, "Hard but worthwhile—the greatest of all work."

During the pastorate of the last minister of the first church, I. V. Williamson, a lot was bought on Webster street and later a loan was launched for the building of a basement church. The officers of the church at that time were Joshua Hubbs, Henry Monroe, A. D. Jackson, Mike Sewell and W. B. McNeil.

Mr. H. H. Peters, state secretary of the Christian Missionary society, dedicated the basement church in February 1922.

As early as 1923 the minutes of the board show that plans were being made for a new sanctuary—a dream not to be realized until 1950. Those records of the board reveal what churches cost in sacrificial service. In periods of depression and flood the faithful few carry on.

Regular at Board Meetings

Men like W. B. McNeil drove his big grey horses, moving houses by day; Mr. Monroe handled a pick in the mine; Frank Gray stood at a cashier's window; Ed Evans managed an ice plant; Charles Gentry worked in a locker room; Carl Corrie cut meat; Roy Adams and Arthur Rice kept books and so on.

But on the first Monday night of each month they were at board meetings of the church wrestling with problems of leaky roofs, heating systems, painting jobs, seeking ministers paying them and manipulating loans. Frank Gray has served longest—about 28 years, most of that time as clerk or president of the board.

During that period the women were carrying on under the leadership of Mrs. Epperheimer. They at one time served three dinners a week to the public.

Ministers of the basement years were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. George Smith; J. C. Jupin, W. W. Carter, Roy N. Cloyd, H. H. Bartlett, Waldo Adams and Everett M. Oakes. The year of 1924, under the ministry of J. C. Jupin, was the banner year for adoption to the church—74. A building fund was started early in the ministry of Mr. Oakes and $15,000 was accumulated by 1950.

Dedicated in 1950

Work on the new church was carried on by a building committee consisting of Edwin Evans, Earl Witten and Frank Gray. Mr. Evans donated his work as contractor.

At last the second period of the church's history ended—the 28 years in the basement. Much of that time the work had been carried on without a minister. The communion was observed each Sunday and consecrated men like Roy Adams kept the lights burning.

The new sanctuary was dedicated May 14, 1950. The program bore these features: John Schork, director of vocal music; Ruth Thompson, pianist; Frank Gray, master of ceremonies; E. M. Oakes, dedicator. Mr. Oakes had the longest pastorate in the history of the church—eight years.

Roy Adams often said, "The Lord sent him here to give the inspiration for the building of our church."

In gratitude for Mr. Evans' work Mr. Witten presented to him a Bible in the name of the church. Pastor Here Since 1952

The present minister, Mr. Glen Daugherty, his wife, Mary, and little son, Glen Willard, came to Harrisburg in June 1952. The church had been eight months without a pastor. The first Sunday 60 were in church and 95 in Bible school. Through the energetic work and consecrated life of Mr. Daugherty the growth has been steady.

Material prosperity has come in greater measure. The indebtedness on the church has been paid, class rooms partitioned, plastic curtains installed in the sanctuary, a nursery and a cry room with sound equipment provided and a weekly publication circulated.

Spiritual growth is shown by the results of six revivals, a youth program of an effective pattern and an unusual spirit of cooperativeness.

With Mr. Adams we might say, "He has been sent to bring the rewards of many years of unfilled promises."

Reuther Charges Lie by Adams

DETROIT (UP) — United Auto Workers President, Walter P. Reuther said Thursday Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams is guilty of borrowing "the lunatic fringe techniques of character assassination and vilification."

Reuther said Adams "deliberately and maliciously lied" when he allegedly accused the UAW president of "hoping to be president in fact, to be the socialist president of the United States."

"We in the American labor movement are accustomed to the barrage of character assassination and vilification that flows endlessly from the right-wing, lunatic fringe of the Republican party, whose hysterical rantings have been so broad and reckless as to even impugn the loyalty of Chief Justice Earl Warren of the Supreme Court," Reuther said in a telegram to Adams. "However, when a man in your position of responsibility borrows the technique of the lunatic fringe, we are both shocked and saddened. It is a shameful role that disgraces what should be the dignity of the post of acting president of the United States which you have filled for most of the last four years."
